Wellington. When the Wellington family fortune is threatened, Bertie's father boasts that Bertie will save the business, that she is so skillful she can "practically spin straw into gold." He's broken bones, nearly died of exposure, and seared half his leg in a wreck. Nearing forty, he's finding it harder to feed the thrill. Enter The Company, an organization specializing in custom adventure rides—the kind where you sign a waiver absolving them of everything short of death before you get on. Company redneck Johnny Lee loves his job, and he's damned good at it. He's run rides for politicians, celebrities, CEOs and trust-fund kids and never broken character or had a complaint. He expects the Thompson ride to be more of the same!another rock star, this one so full of himself he's signed up for 48 hours, an unprecedented amount of time on the Deliverance set. Rock stars break easily, though, especially the full-of-themselfs kind. Everyone breaks more easily than they expect. Even Johnny Lee.
