Financial And Managerial Accounting Chapter

Financial accounting is concerned with reporting historical data to outside sources, while managerial accounting is concerned with reporting data to inside sources for the purpose of planning. Financial accounting must follow generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), while managerial accounting does not need to follow GAAP.

The four core financial statements.

Chapter 1 introduces the study of accounting. Accounting is defined as a set of concepts and techniques that are used to measure and report financial information about an economic entity. Accounting consists of both external reporting issues known as “financial accounting,” and internal reporting issues related to “managerial accounting.”

Managerial accounting deals with information produced for internal users, while financial accounting deals with external reporting. The income statement captures sales and expenses over a period of time and shows how much a firm made or lost in that period.
