Set This House on Fire plays on the idea of salvation within the framework of crime and punishment. It uses the means of Gothic romance for developing this salvation story of Cass Kinsolving even though it does not follow Gothic conventions step by step. It borrows from the structure of confessional literature for presenting plot within a plot but not limits itself with the inner dynamics. It ...

Styron be a psychologically intense, earnest rumination on evil, redemption, cruelty, the various ways human beings exploit and deceive one another. It's discursive, ruminative, deeply felt, passionate. The portraits of its 2 main characters are searingly detailed, revelling in the weaknesses of Cass & Mason. Sure it's a bit long and page 300 to 450 could safely ...
